JULY 2010 NEWSLETTER

CELEBRATION, CELEBRATION!

In July, both the American and the French people celebrate what is probably the most important day in their respective history: America's Independence Day on July 4th and French Bastille Day on July 14th.

Here is what the Alliance Française of Greater Orlando offers for this dual celebration:

- On Saturday, July 10, AFGO will participate in the second Audubon Park Garden District festival, by exhibiting at Stardust. The whole festival will take place at the intersection of Winter Park Avenue and Corinne Drive in Orlando. It will start at 2:00 pm with a jazz concert by Benoit Glazer and his band, at Stardust. It will be followed by an array of entertaining events in the street fair: jugglers, musicians, pétanque games, a French market offering wine, art and food, Parisian waiters' race, poodle parade, etc. until 10:00 pm. For more details, please visit Audubon Park's website: www.apgardens.com or call Kat Quast at 407-590-8776.
- On Saturday, July 24, AFGO will co-celebrate Bastille Day and Independence Day with a superb dinner that will start at 7:00 pm in our office located at 1516 E. Colonial Drive, Orlando. Parking and entrance at the rear of the building. You will also enjoy French music and a raffle with beautiful prizes. You will soon receive an invitation with all the details regarding this patriotic event. Come and join us for an evening of fun, but beware: seating is limited. So please make your reservation as soon as possible.

Calendar of Events
