About the Artists

Dusty Partridge

Dusty Partridge was unaware that he was an artist until, at the ripe old age of seven, his mother informed him that he was. Creating, to him it seemed, was as natural as breathing and there was simply no choice in the matter. He is now both a literary and visual artist and will create an exhibit with some of his sculptures for you to view.

Muriel Partridge

Muriel Partridge has always enjoyed art: literature; she is a French published novelist, and painting. Moving to Florida, she discovered a new medium: palm fronds. She will present you with "Spirits of Fairy Tales", a collection of her latest works symbolizing immortal stories and the souls of animals and princesses.

Jacki Manna

Jacki Manna is an award-winning ventriloquist and magician with over twenty years experience as a professional entertainer. She has performed all over the United-States and in a dozen other countries.
